

HPD Incident #:42186507

Names: Unknown

Date:Friday, March 23, 2007

Time:4:30 PM

Offense: Robbery - Threat

Location: CVS Pharmacy - 11540 Westheimer

On March 23, 2007 at 4:30 p.m. a Hispanic male and Hispanic female entered a CVS pharmacy, located at 11540 Westheimer. The female distracted the store manager and one of the store clerks by bringing merchandise up to the cash register and then asking many questions, which required their attention. The Hispanic male then left the store with a shopping cart full of baby diapers and other baby accessories without any attempt to pay for the merchandise.

The CVS manager observed the male leaving the location and followed the male outside where the manager told the male to return the merchandise. The male told the manager to return inside the CVS store or he would hurt the manager. The manager retreated out of fear for his life, but was able to describe a mid-sized vehicle which was blue in color. When the manager returned inside the store, the female suspect was gone.
